Don't call her the Mighty, but Anna Staver isn't messing around. The outspoken Ohio prosecutor — who is also the niece of far-right pundit Pat Staver — has become a formidable opponent of President Trump, using her Twitter account to slam the president on everything from his attack on the free press to his rescinding of protections for transgender students. "Like a molting snake, Donald Trump is shedding skin, but the real source of his frustration is that he can't shed himself," she wrote earlier this week. A reporter for the Columbus Dispatch, who spoke to the prosecutor on the phone Monday, asked Staver how she first became involved in politics. ♦
